

WADE Canada June News 2010

Feature Member

Sedmek Inc.

Sedmek Inc. is an Alberta based renewable energy services installer/ distributor specializing in residential and commercial solar systems. Sedmek brings solar energy technologies to the Western Canadian market and supports its customers and installers so they can access solar thermal and electric systems.

Full Story

Feature Project

Lakeland College Receives $2.3 million From Federal Government for Renewable Energy Development

Lakeland College in Vermilion Alberta, was successful in receiving $2.3 million over 5 years from the College and Community Innovation Program (CCI) to expand and support applied research and innovation activities linked to its programs in renewable energy technologies.

Full Story

WADE Canada Successfully Completes RETScreen® Training Workshop in Chatham-Kent (C-K) Ontario, May 26-27

Employees from Chatham-Kent businesses including the utility, engineering firms, the Municipality and instructors from Ridgetown campus attended the workshop and dinner.

Full Story

WADE Canada Dinner Hosted by Mayor Randy Hope, Chatham-Kent, May 26

WADE Canada organized an Executives' Circle dinner that brought thirteen senior level executives to the table to explore clean energy opportunities in Chatham-Kent and to establish collaborative partnerships for future business.

Full Story

WADE Canada Welcomes ENMAX, City of Toronto and Ernst & Young to its Board of Directors.

WADE Canada held its AGM on May 27, at the RETRO Suites hotel in Chatham-Kent, Ontario. AGM Minutes and Annual Report will be made available online.

Full Story

WADE Canada Attends Toronto City Hall's Green Roof Opening, May 29

On May 29 and 30, 150 buildings of architectural, historic, cultural and/or social significance opened their doors to the public as part of the city's 'Doors Open Toronto'. WADE Canada President, Anouk Kendall and Board Member, Jim Baxter of the City of Toronto attended City Hall's Green Roof Launch.

Full Story

WADE Canada Will Host RETScreen® Training Workshop in Montreal, September 14-15

We are hosting this session in collaboration with Ernst and Young and are dove tailing the event with the Montreal World Energy Congress.

Full Story

Featured Events

Last Chance to Register for CDEA's District Energy Conference in Vancouver, June 23-25

To register, please click here

Contact WADE Canada

Join WADE Canada